

Loyola Returns To Four Year Course

Sixteen New Teachers Join College Faculty

A list of all members of the college faculty and their offices will be published in the October 8 issue of THE GREYHOUND.

Sixteen new instructors have joined the college faculty to bring the total number of teachers in the day school to 54, the Office of the Dean announced this week.

Comprising the faculty are 15 members of the Society of Jesus, 37 laymen and two secular priests. Of the sixteen new teachers, seven are Jesuits and nine are laymen.

New Jesuits include the Reverends Richard Dowling, S. J., teacher of History, Paul J. Gibbons, S. J., English, Aloysius R. Mack, S. J., Religion, Leo G. Monaghan, S. J., Religion and Speech, John J. Scanlan, Ethics, and Misters John J. Burns, S. J., Chemistry, and Myer F. Tobey, S. J., Economics and Sociology.

The Rev. Nicholas Horvath is teaching Philosophy.

Laymen who recently began teaching duties are Edward H. Copes, Harold R. Durker, Dr. Edward I. Fenlon, Angelo A. Gentill, Howard T. Griffith, Raymond Huck, Edward N. Megay, Donald M. Slager and Gabriel Stickle.

History Of Art In Night School

A course in the History of Art, by Dr. Charles M. Niver, is being given in the Evening School and Adult Education, according to an announcement by the Rev. John E. Wise, S. J., Dean.

The course, to be conducted each Wednesday evening, began this week and will continue for the duration of the school year.

Senior Instructor in History at Johns Hopkins and Lecturer in the Art Department at the Catholic University of America, in addition to teaching at Harvard University, Dr. Niver was graduated with the degree of A.B., magna cum laude, from Harvard University in 1922.

In the first semester, he will give special consideration to architecture, sculpture and painting of early Rome.

THREE FRESHMEN, Dennis Scully, James Liszewski and John Allen compare class schedules during registration for the new class.

Hazing On For New 'Pups'; Eleven Regulations Listed

With the hope of integrating the freshmen into the college scheme and of uniting the freshman class into a productive and co-operative body, hazing of 250 new Loyola "pups" began on Monday.

The hazing period, during which members of the freshman class must observe eleven regulations drawn up by the Student Council, will continue, according to the last rule, "until the Soph-Frosh Athletic contest" which "shall determine whether the rules be continued or cancelled."

Regulations Listed

Among the regulations to be kept are the following: the wearing of the prescribed Pup-cap and Tie, the speaking to upperclassmen at all times, attendance at the Freshmen Welcoming Dance to be held in October, the knowledge of every other freshman's name by October 14 and the wearing of the name badge for that period.

E. Clinton Bamberger, President of the Student Council, in his talk to the new class during its orientation on September 13, stressed that co-operation was necessary in order for the plan to fulfill its objective. Bamberger believes that the bulk of responsibility rests with the sophomores, since without the enforcement of the rules by the Sophomore Vigilance Committee, the entire scheme will be a failure.

Committee Decides

Penalty for the refusal to obey any of the rules and their final interpretation will be decided by the Vigilance Committee, which has "the sole right to add to, subtract from, or change these rules."

247 Freshmen Listed Among Student Body

A freshman class of 247 became the first group to begin a four-year course of studies in six years as Loyola opened its ninety-sixth year with a total enrollment of 1002 students.

The new group, including 28 per cent veterans, began actual class work with the rest of the student body on September 14, after enrolling on September 7 and being oriented during three-day ceremonies. Graduation for the class is scheduled for June, 1952.

Many Turned Down

The majority of the freshmen are students in the Science and Business Administration courses. 97 are Business students, and 80 are taking BSI courses. Many who made application for enrollment were turned down in order to avoid overcrowding of classes.

577 members of the student body are veterans receiving their education under the G. I. Bill. The freshman class is the only one not having a majority of vet students.

Part Of War Program

Loyola began the three-year course in September, 1945, to aid the members of the armed forces in acceleration of their studies. Last year's freshman class was the last to take the triennial plan, although several of that group chose the four year course and will be graduated in 1951.

Father Didusch To Mark Golden Jubilee As Jesuit

The Rev. Joseph S. Didusch, S. J., will celebrate his Golden Jubilee as a member of the Society of Jesus with a Solemn High Mass at Saint Ignatius' Church on October 3.

Fr. Didusch, who entered the Jesuit Novitiate in Frederick, Md., in 1898, will be the Celebrant of the Mass, which marks his fiftieth year as a Jesuit. The Rev. Matthew G. Sullivan, S. J., Dean, will be Deacon, and the Rev. Joseph A. d'Invilliers, S. J., will be Sub-Deacon. The Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., formerly President of Loyola College and presently Regent of the Schools of Dentistry and Nursing at Georgetown University, will preach the sermon.

Biology Professor Here

Professor of Biology at Loyola since 1935, Fr. Didusch is a member of eight scientific societies, and has given public lectures on biological topics some of which have appeared in print in science magazines.

He has been Dean of St. Joseph's College, Philadelphia, Rector of the Jesuit Novitiate at Wernersville, Pa., Dean of the Philosophical Department and Professor of Empirical Psychology at Woodstock College, and Regent of the Medical and Dental Schools, Georgetown University.

Loyola Graduate

Sixty-eight years old, Fr. Didusch was admitted to Loyola High School in September, 1893, and was graduated from Loyola College with a Bachelor of Arts Degree, in June, 1898.

The Rev. Joseph S. Didusch, S. J.

Thirty-two of his years as a Jesuit have been spent in teaching, both as a scholastic and as a priest following his ordination on June 24, 1912, at Woodstock College. He made his Last Vows in the Church of the Gesu, Philadelphia, on February 2, 1916.

His "Syllabus for Biology in High Schools" was published in 1923, and is still in use.

Glee Club Joins National Group

The Loyola College Glee Club has become a member of the Associated Male Choruses of America, Incorporated, Felice Iula, director of the department of music, announced this week.

First activity for the group this semester will be its participation in the massed concert to be given at the Polytechnic Auditorium on November 18. It will be sponsored by the Maryland district, a state division of the national association.

Mr. Iula also disclosed that an orchestral concert will be given by members of the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra on Thursday, October 14 at 11 a.m. in the Gymnasium.

The concert, to be conducted by Mr. Iula, will be attended by the student body.

Student Body Attends Annual Holy Ghost Mass At Cathedral

The scholastic year of 1948-49 began officially with the traditional Mass of the Holy Ghost at the Cathedral last Friday morning. The student body was in attendance.

The Very Rev. Francis X. Talbot, S. J., President of Loyola, was the Celebrant, the Rev. Matthew G. Sullivan, S. J., Dean, was Deacon, and the Rev. Joseph A. d'Invilliers, S. J., was Sub-Deacon.

The Rev. John J. Duggan, Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, delivered the sermon.

It was the second consecutive year that the Mass was celebrated at the Cathedral. Because of the large enrollment of the college, the administration felt that the Cathedral, with its larger seating capacity would be a more advisable place for conducting the ceremony than on the campus.

In years previous to 1947, the Mass was celebrated in the Gymnasium.

CYO Awarded Scholarships

Two Loyola College Evening School Scholarships, offered to members of the Catholic Youth Organization, were awarded last month to Miss Josephine Johnson and Mr. Charles Broring.

Each scholarship is for a full four year college course or its equivalent in college credit and covers half the tuition.

Miss Johnson, a graduate of St. Joseph's High School at Emmitsburg is a laboratory technician at Johns Hopkins Hospital and will take the pre-medical course.

Mr. Broring will take courses leading to a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration Degree. He is a graduate of Punxsutawney High School, Punxsutawney, Pa.

In order to retain scholarship privileges the candidates must retain a 75 per cent average in all subjects.

Numerous Collections Added To Expanding College Library

More than 3,000 volumes have been added to the Loyola College Library in the past two years according to a report prepared by the Library personnel under the Rev. John E. Wise, S. J., Librarian. The additions brought the total number of volumes in the Library to 39,396.

The report covered all phases of library work from July 1, 1946 to June 30, 1948. During the past three years, it was noted that there was a total circulation of about 13,000 volumes. A 3.5% per capita circulation for the last fiscal year was reported. The report explained this figure by pointing out that the students were on an accelerated program and consequently had little spare time for reading as compared to the ordinary four year schedule.

Names Objectives

A three-fold purpose of a Catholic College Library was outlined. It included presentation to the student of the Catholic educational ideal in the form of books and literature, help in carrying out the aims and objectives of the College and the development of a love for books and learning which will serve the student throughout life.

The report stated that these objectives are being fulfilled as evidenced by statistics concerning circulation.

New System Inaugurated

A system of filling out application cards for library use has been inaugurated. It is expected that this will aid in obtaining a closer check on the yearly analysis which the library will present.

Efforts are being made to obtain old literature connected with the College such as yearbooks, newspapers and magazines. During the past two years, the library has received five valuable gifts including the library of Henry Bogue.

NSA Delegates Covene At Madison

E. Clinton Bamberger and Edward J. McNeal, members of the Loyola Student Council, represented Loyola College at the National Students' Association's convention at Madison, Wisconsin from August 23 to 28. They were among 425 delegates from 265 schools representing 41 states.

During the five-day period, the delegates attended numerous meetings and caucuses which approached every aspect of student government. The convention also expressed opinion on current legislative proceedings.

Obtain Numerous Aids

The two Loyola delegates report that they have received invaluable information and aids to better student government for the College. The convention afforded an opportunity to view a comprehensive cross-section of the nation's student governmental systems.

They announced that henceforth Loyola will take more active participation in the regional meetings of the schools. They expect that these assemblies will contribute much to inter-collegiate understanding and co-operation.

Negro Named Head

During the course of the proceedings at Madison, Ted Harris, Negro student of La Salle College, was unanimously elected president of the organization. The Association prides itself on attempting to break down the existing race barriers among students of different races.

Bamberger stated that he was pledged to better student government at Loyola since one of the most important points of the five day discussion was the controversy on the exact part that a student should play in school government.

July '49 Class Asks Dean For Graduation Privilege

A petition bearing 185 signatures of the members of the July '49, class was presented to the Dean yesterday asking that the school Administration give special consideration to the class by allowing its members to participate in the large commencement exercises at the close of the school year.

Eugene Welsh, president of the class, pointed out that if the regular commencement exercises are conducted on June 5, as the catalog designates, the members of the July '49 class will not be able to participate in them even though that class represents a majority of the 1949 graduating classes.

Others Listed

Members of the classes which finish in January and May will be the only ones who will actually participate in the June exercises and yet the total number of graduates in both those classes does not equal the number in the July group, Welsh stated.

The petition asked that the authorities conduct a vote among the entire '49 class or to determine the graduation date by some other democratic manner.

Procedure In Past

Last year, exercises were conducted in May for the January and May classes. The members of the July group were clothed in caps and gowns but did not sit on the stage or take part in the ceremony, with

Merin Chosen Official Yearbook Photographer

According to an official announcement by Donald E. Fay, Editor-in-Chief of the 1949 Evergreen, Merin Studios of Philadelphia, has been chosen as the official photographers for the annual.

Merin representatives will visit Loyola on October 25-28 to take the senior portraits. The Gym will be used for sittings as it was last year.

New Vote For Portrait

Because the controversy in the voting, there will be a special meeting of the three senior classes to determine the costume for senior portraits. In the recent poll, the majority of students favored either informal attire or gowns, with or without caps. Due to the close vote, a recount will be taken.

The annual will be published in early July next year. Thus, it will have complete coverage of all sports and extra-curricular activities. The book will be the standard 9 x 12 college size edition containing about 160 pages.

Advertising Begun

The advertising department, under the direction of Calvert Kenning has already started its drive. Ad contracts and rate schedules have been distributed to some members of the upper classes and are available through Kenning to the remainder of the school. The usual 15% commission remains in effect.

The yearbook will be published in two types this year with a leather-bound edition for upperclassmen and a paper-bound edition for underclassmen. The former will be available to underclassmen at a slightly increased price.

The activities pictures and sports photos will be taken by the student photography staff.

Lo, ola's Bookstore Has The New Look

The Campus Shop, formerly known as the Loyola College Bookstore, has been completely remodeled for the 1948-49 sales season. The new edifice was erected on the site once occupied by THE GREYHOUND office and a storeroom. It is located in the basement of the Science Building at the east end of the cafeteria.

General Manager William McElroy and his capable staff of super salesmen report that the store has been fully stocked with the latest in college merchandise. This includes sweaters, shoes, shirts and books.

A large selection of school jewelry impressed with the school seal is also on display in the new 1948 Campus Shop.

News In Brief

Kenneth G. Smith, ex '50, passed entrance exams for the Naval Academy. Smith studied at Loyola for one year preparatory to taking his exams at Annapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alcareso '49, have announced the birth of a son, Joseph Shawn on July 18, in Virginia, where they were vacationing with the parents of Mrs. Alcareso.

Frank Timothy Parr, Jr., January, '47, was married to Lois June Gregory last Saturday afternoon at Saint Mark's Church, Catonsville. Parr, formerly Sports Editor of THE GREYHOUND, received his M.S. in Organic Chemistry at Fordham University on June 9.

Mr. William-M. J. Driscoll, S. J., former Moderator of THE GREYHOUND, has been appointed Registrar of Woodstock College, where he is studying Theology.

John Joseph Sweeney, Jr., '47, was married on Thursday, September 16, to Mary Rosewin Tewey at Blessed Sacrament Church. The Very Rev. David Nugent, S. J., Provincial of the Maryland Province of the Society of Jesus, married the couple. Sweeney was president of the student body while at Loyola.

Anstin L. Byrd was elected social secretary of the Student Council at its meeting on September 15. He will corollate all social activities in the college.

Evergreen Scenes

by Frank Gallagher

Close, But No Cigar

Although Seton High managed to steal the spotlight from Evergreen, Loyola did come through with a fierce blaze of its own just a few days before the pups manned the classrooms.

The story has all the elements of a dandy chimera. (Father Walsh, please take note.) Flame broke out in the ice box. The cafeteria belched smoke—quite a departure from the usual procedure. Firemen came, extinguished the flames and emptied all the Bolsters from the candy machine.

We are in complete sympathy with the mad student-arsonist who tried so valiantly to delay the opening of school. But we cannot refrain from chastising him for rubbing his flint together in the one place where we can get something to eat. We feel that the Dean's Office would have served the purpose much more admirably.

The Soft Touch

If the diverse jobs in which Loyola students were employed during the summer were listed on one long strip of paper, chances are that the contents would furnish ample material for another "Nutcracker Suite."

One particularly scholarly gent worked as a clown in a traveling circus. Others worked as shoe salesmen, can inspectors, bartenders and morons on over-simplified assembly lines. But the softest touch of the summer was had by a renowned member of the May, '49, Class.

At specified intervals, he would meander up to his local hospital, swallow a glass of tomato juice, and rest his cadaver on a long white table while he "donated" rare RH negative blood—for fifty dollars. When he had exhausted his supply of money, he would return to the hospital and "donate" once more.

Double Trouble

Draft Board Number 26 was manned by two staff members of THE GREYHOUND during registration this month. They had the unique distinction of registering each other for the draft. But they have nothing on another student of the college who claims that while working at a Hamilton draft board he registered himself.

Perhaps the Federal Bureau of Investigation would be interested in obtaining names and dates.

Meet The Faculty:

Father Mack Describes Class As Experiment In Psychology

"Teaching is a very interesting study of human psychology," states the Rev. Aloysius R. Mack, S.J., newly appointed Professor of Religion at Loyola College. Father Mack comes to the College from Loyola High School where he has been an instructor in Senior Latin and English for the past three years.

A genial personality with a love for the classics, Father Mack received his degree of Master of Arts from Woodstock College and his Doctor of Philosophy degree from the Gregorian University in Rome.

Native Washingtonian

Father Mack was born in Washington, D. C., in 1886, attended Gonzaga High School and Georgetown College before he entered the Society of Jesus at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. in 1907.

His teaching career has included assignments at Canisius College in Buffalo, N. Y., Georgetown Preparatory School and Georgetown College, Fordham University and Loyola High School.

Has Held Many Posts

While at Canisius, Father Mack served as both Dean of Studies and Dean of Discipline. He was Student Counselor at Georgetown Prep and University, also serving as Prefect of Discipline at the former.

Because the students are more mature and take a deeper interest in their work than do high school students, Father Mack prefers teaching college. A knowledge of the classics is a worthwhile acquisition for any man who wishes to appreciate culture, asserts Father Mack, who can quote his Virgil and Horace with a zest seldom equalled by anyone of our times.

He is not unknown by the students of Loyola, having instructed many score of them while they were high school students at Loyola.

As these students are graduated, they become eligible for membership in the Alumni Club, provided they measure up to the requirements of that group.

Noah Walker, who has recently returned from Columbia University where he earned his Bachelor of Laws degree, was inducted into Alpha Sigma Nu by Rev. Matthew G. Sullivan, S.J., Dean of Loyola. Walker received his gold ASN key and membership diploma.

Two other Loyola College graduates, William Cahill, Jr., and Bernard Saltysiak, having met the requirements of the Alumni Club, were officially inducted into that body.

Hold General Session

ASN's third annual meeting began in the morning with Holy Mass and Communion for the brothers. Fr. Sullivan celebrated the Mass.

Following the first general meeting, special committees met; after which there was the recitation of the Rosary, lunch, a second general session and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament celebrated by the Rev. Joseph A. d'Inviillers, S.J.

The new president appointed several committee chairmen and the Club drafted a social calendar including a Halloween Party and Weenie Roast, a New Year's Eve Party, a Spring Banquet and an annual summer all-day outing.

Freshmen Close Annual Retreat

Loyola's annual Freshman retreat closed this morning with Mass and Communion in the Gymnasium. The retreat was held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week from 8:45 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Reverend John J. Scanlan, S.J., Student Counselor for the Freshman class, was in charge of the retreat program and the Reverend Joseph Murphy, S.J., served as the retreat-master.

Only Catholics were required to attend the retreat sessions. Classes in Philosophy of Life were conducted for non-Catholics by the Rev. James Horrigan, S.J.

Father Murphy's talks dealt with the student's role in the modern world and his duty to prepare himself by education for future life.

'The Era of the Medium' Hits The Theatre World

by George Herman

Behold, 'tis Fall . . . the voice of the turtle is heard no more in our land (having succeeded as a movie) . . . and the theatre world has come into a brand new period, "The Era of the Medium."

The item which makes every show a hit, whether stage, screen or radio, is theatrical effectiveness which is the simple but complex formula of audience reaction plus staging in the medium. This means simply that if the B. O. rating (that's Box Office, you non-Variety readers) is high and by certain fundamental standards, the production is good, then that show is a hit—or simply, theatrically effective.

Wrong Analysis

Actually every "bad" show or ones with poor B. O. ratings fail because it is wrong in staging or it fails to comply with the principles and likes of the audience. Usually they will be quick to tell you what is wrong—and usually they are wrong in their analysis—but there is obviously something wrong and the producer must find it. It is the didactic writer and director who gets caught.

Now Alfred Hitchcock has turned to the field of "playing the medium"—that is, using the motion picture camera to do the things that cannot be done on stage, but plus all the benefits of stage production. His Rope uses the four-wall idea which is impossible in the theatre, and concentrated view which makes up for directional flaws in many cases.

Hollywood Use

Walt Disney has been doing the same for years, and Robert Montgomery has also been experimenting with his technique. All in all, Hollywood has awakened at last to the advantages—and the disadvantages—of the camera and the glorified shading of technicolor.

Two Grads Enter Jesuit Novitiate

Two members of last year's graduating class have entered the Society of Jesus during the summer. J. Allan Panuska and Aloysius Galvin entered the Jesuit Novitiate at Wernersville, Pennsylvania during the summer.

Galvin was an honor student and a member of the varsity basketball squad while at Loyola. He served in the Navy and was stationed at Mt. St. Mary's where he also played basketball.

Panuska was editor-in-chief of the Yearbook last year and had also served as president of Alpha Sigma Nu and of the College Debating Society.

State Of The College

Statistics are said to be as dry as the Sahara Desert. Nevertheless, they do present a true picture of a particular situation. Therefore, we are not apologizing to our readers for the following barrage of numbers and percentages. We believe that the students of Loyola will understand that a comprehensive view of the enrollment is necessary at this time.

Veterans represent 58% of the total enrollment of the student body of Loyola College. Last year, the incoming freshman class was 56% veteran. This year, there was a 50% drop in the number of veterans in the new freshman class. They represent only 28% of the new class.

It seems extremely strange that a liberal arts college such as Loyola has only 11% of its students pursuing the A. B. courses. Less than 5% of the veterans are A. B. students.

Concentration is on the business courses. 39% of the college students are pursuing B. S. II studies. Of the 380 students in the business sections, 263 or 27% of the entire college enrollment, are veterans.

Pursuing the Bachelor of Philosophy courses are 17% of the students. 100 students representing about 10% of the total student enrollment are veterans studying for the Ph. B. degree.

Science and pre-medical students comprise 33% of the entire college enrollment. More than half of the science students are veterans.

There are 314 students in this year's graduating classes. 75% are veterans. In the 1950 graduating class, there are 371 students. Of this number 69% are veterans. The July '51 graduating class will be extremely small due to return to the four year course. 64 will be graduated. Nine are veterans. The July '52 class numbers 247 students, 28% of which are veterans.

A Catholic Negro

The action of the National Student Association in electing to its presidency a Catholic Negro is a healthy sign. The nomination came as a complete surprise and was made by a Jewish student from the University of Chicago. The delegates to that convention did not stop to consider the barriers of race and creed. They voted almost unanimously for the ability which Ted Harris had proven was his.

The day of his election will be remembered as a banner day in the history of American education. The delegates from the 265 American colleges proved to their countrymen that they were profiting from the lectures of the classroom. They displayed a type of education much more genuine than one obtained solely from a reading knowledge of many books. They displayed the type of action which arises from true education.

America should be glad her sons and daughters are not following in the bigoted footsteps of their parents. Education is proving its worth. Perhaps the day is not too distant when the color of a man's skin and the convictions of his conscience will not force him to bury his talents in a land where hatred plays too large a role.

Greyhound Bulletin Regulations Listed

The Greyhound Daily Bulletin will be published and posted on all school bulletin boards throughout the scholastic year by THE GREYHOUND. News of extra-curricular activities, athletic events and messages of interest to the students will be contained on the Bulletin.

Presidents and moderators of societies and others who wish to make announcements must hand in the information to James Bowen or one of the other editors of THE GREYHOUND. Any announcement must be had before 3:00 p. m. on the afternoon before the day the announcement is to be published.

- An Invitation
- NSA Movements
- Class Situation

R.S.V.P.

Very graciously, the young ladies of Notre Dame of Maryland College have extended an invitation to one hundred students of Loyola College to attend a Tea Dance this afternoon.

This gesture on their part should be followed up by the attendance of a large group of our students who are not presently attached to another by the bonds of marriage or some other agreement which would make attendance at the dance undesirable. Those who are able to attend and who are not adverse to the charms of the modern college girl should be present at Notre Dame next week.

It has been rumored that Loyola is to receive invitations to Tea Dances at other schools besides Notre Dame of Maryland. Those who wish to attend such affairs should do so and also see to it that their hostesses will find ample reason to renew the invitation at some future date.

To paraphrase one of the more subtle sophists, "Nothing succeeds like success."

A Lengthy Stride

The announcement of Eugene Welsh, president of the July, '49 class, to forego the honor of having his date serve as Prom Queen and to open the position to competition is indeed a generous act.

Certainly such unselfishness will go a long way in consolidating the class at a time when cooperation is most vital. Too many classes go into debt at prom time because they cannot obtain the full assistance of the members of the classes. Perhaps the students feel that they have too little to do with the arrangements made beforehand and consequently do not feel obligated in executing plans which they did not help to make.

It is a wholesome sign and a generous act when a man gives up an honor to which he is justly entitled in order to consolidate the members and factions in his class.

Dances

- Sept. 24—Tea Dance at Notre Dame of Maryland from 4 to 6 p. m. 100 Loyola students are invited.
- Oct. 16—Freshman Welcoming Dance at Loyola College in Gymnasium from 9 to 1 p. m. Orchestra and refreshments.
- Nov. 5—C. S. M. C. dance at Notre Dame of Maryland.
- Dec. 3—Junior Prom at the Alcazar from 9 to 1.

Musica Americana:

'Underneath The Arches' Has Definite Cornbelt Leaning

by Dick Coleman

During the past six weeks it seems the taste in American popular music has gone to the cornbelt. The latest addition to the cornhusker's reunion is the full-range recording by Prima Scala's Accordion Orchestra to the tune of "Underneath the Arches." This title varies even though it was the theme song of Ocean City for the past summer. (Ah, the things we did last summer!)

It seems that one of the more intelligent listeners to my Saturday request show asked to hear "Underneath the Orchids." (They grow in Africa, greenhouses and other places.) This tune is really "Babyface" backwards.

The second tune which we can inject into the same category is the "Cornbelt Symphony" as played on an Appolo recording by Fred Gray, his chorus and Orchestra—a gentleman of whom no one has heard and will probably never hear again. This recording features a vocalist but they forgot to put his name on it. I'll bet they like his work.

The third corny conglomeration is that of Pee Wee Hunt and his Dixieland aggregation. The title is "Twelfth Street Rag" — the old classic. America has it way up on the tip-top, tip-top parade. All we can say is that it's a change.

Some of the new popular music on the market in the schmaltz line is that of the great Mr. Tommy Dorsey, his trombone and his Orchestra with Harry Prime, the Clark Sisters and the Town Criers on the vocal. This vocal arranging is in accord with the old Dorsey "I'll Never Smile Again" and "Stardust" stylings. Although the Victor Vocal styling of one Mr. Prime are far from the old Sinatra singing, this disc is a real smoothie worthy of your collection.

Another fine recording for your library is the Signature waxing of "Gloria" by Ray Anthony and his Orchestra. The vocalist, who sounds exactly like the old Dorsey Sinatra, is Roni Deauville, recent winner of the Godfrey Talent Show. The tune is worthy of the arrangement which features some very fine celeste work. The second chorus features Mr. Anthony on trumpet, but there is too much rhythm—the guitar sticks out like a sore thumb. You won't be sorry if you buy this one.

Record Exam Schedule Set

Schedule for the 1948-49 Graduate Record Examinations was released this week by Dr. William H. McHugh. The tests, given once each three months during the school year on a nation-wide basis, will include questions of general knowledge in eight fields and an advanced test in whatever subject the student is majoring.

The examinations will be held on Monday and Tuesday, October 25 and 26; Monday and Tuesday, February 7 and 8; Monday and Tuesday, May 2 and 3.

Registration for the examinations will be held between September 20 and October 4 in the Evening School Office, Dr. McHugh announced.

Competition Planned For Rifle Club This Year

Loyola plans to enter a qualified rifle and pistol team in active competition with the other colleges this year, according to Stanley Stone, President of Loyola's Rifle Club. Ten target rifles and a large supply of ammunition are on hand for the members' use.

Stone called the attention of the students to the exhibit prepared in the library. He urged interested members to attend the first meeting.

Pacing The Pack

Cross-Country And Soccer Under Way; Basketball Due

By Mickey Parr, Sports Editor

After reading the title line across the top of this article you can chase away that puzzled frown, because this is not an alien sports page you are reading, it's still THE GREYHOUND.

The simple answer is that a rechristening has taken place, and ye Editor's column is now known as Pacing The Pack!

So, with a new name adopted and a new collegiate sports year rising behind the swift departure of an all too short summer vacation, we'll settle down to give you a steady patter of opinions, discussions, etc., on Loyola athletic doings.

Lacy Cancels Pre-season Wailing

One of the first tasks before us is to send through a swift cancellation of an order, placed last spring, for 10 gross of crying towels. Now that the ever dependable Jim Lacy has again placed his name on the Loyola student list, basketball coach Lefty Reitz can forget his problems of replacing the black-haired beauty.

In another sense the wily Greyhound mentor may now have an even greater job on his hands. What with Andy O'Donnell, Mike Zedalis, Bill Johnson, Vince Gallagher, Bob Barry and others due back, mellowing with hardwood experience, plus the addition of newcomer Bob Anderson, the Green and Gray quintet will be expected to blossom into its full potentialities as one of the top teams in the East. And that isn't just wishful thinking.

By the way, it may seem a little early to be talking basketball, but it is later than you think! Take a look at the pre-season schedules. Cage practice for the 1948-49 season begins just one week from today.

McElroy Eyes Possible Championship

A trio of returning veterans, headed by George Brown, the fellow who is short on legs but long on endurance and condition, may make Bill McElroy's cross-country team jump up as one of the contender's for the '48 Mason-Dixon championship. Bill's a stickler for working his boys hard and his efforts are bound to pay off.

Incidentally, Brown didn't wait for McElroy's official call to the team to start getting into shape. The plucky hill and dale star entered the thirty-third annual renewal of the Municipal Track and Field Games, held September 13 at Clifton Park. Against the city's top runners, he finished second in the six mile run. It took the veteran Don Heinecke to precede Brown across the finish line.

Injuries Plague Booters

Though the picture is encouraging for basketball and cross-country, Bishop Baker doesn't enjoy any such luxury with his soccer squad. Bish is holding the joker of the deck at this stage, with a very uncertain future.

Not only will he be without the services of Bill Linz, Ellsworth Andrews, and Lew Fonti, all important members of his 1947 club, but two of his top returnees are among that fragile category known as the injury list.

Nick Kropfelder, point maker deluxe, will still have to cavort with his right knee encased in that big, stiff looking brace which characterized his appearance last season. Nick will certainly make the difference between a winning and losing campaign.

Then there's Tommy Lind, also taking a wary attitude toward a tricky knee, injured during a game at Evergreen last year. Tom wants to switch his duties to the goalie spot, but his outstanding ability at the familiar halfback post gives rise to hope that the lad may find the injury strengthened enough to forget the switch in positions.

Transfer Rule Looms Beneficial

With the new transfer rule in effect at Evergreen, the quality of Loyola's athletic setup should take a rise in the estimate of major colleges and universities throughout the country. This means increased and better relations which is followed by more appealing sports schedules.

In case you missed the newspaper release during the summer, the ruling provides that any student who transfers to Loyola from another college must complete two academic semesters here before he is eligible for varsity athletics.

Mascot Leaves

Loyola's claim to an honest-to-goodness live mascot has turned out to be very short-lived. "Boy," the somewhat under-

Here is the soccer team that finished behind the Championship Washington College booters in 1947. Will the 1948 Greyhound unit replace the Sho'men?

Lacy Eases Reitz's Brow

by Gerry McCormick

Coach Lefty Reitz was very pleased recently when he heard the unexpected news that Jim Lacy would once again be in the Greyhound basketball picture; however, as might be expected, the coaches of the opposing teams on Loyola's schedule were not at all over-joyed at the prospect of facing Loyola plus Lacy.

These coaches well realize the value of Jim Lacy in a basketball game. Besides his well known scoring prowess, Jim is a polished playmaker and a tenacious defense man. In his final fling under the Green and Gray, Jim undoubtedly will play a major part in Loyola's program to ease itself into the "big time" in collegiate basketball.

Entered Business

Jim's decision, last spring, to leave school and enter the business world, was a severe blow to Loyola's basketball hopes, although the Greyhounds would still have floored a very formidable team without him.

During the summer, however, Jim was convinced of the value of education; he saw the advantages he would have if he finished his schooling, and with this in mind he decided to return to Loyola.

Pro Teams Interested

Jim Lacy's return, though it may change any plans Lefty Reitz has made for the coming season, will give the Hounds an experienced, high scoring offense. Jim will team up with fast-stepping Mike Zedalis at forward, while tricky Andy O'Donnell and Bill Johnson hold down the guard posts. The center spot will probably find newcomer Bob Anderson or holdover Bob Barry tapping off.

Basketball Books Soon Available

The Athletic Department has announced that admission to inter-collegiate basketball games held at Loyola College during the 1948-49 season is free to all students, as has been the custom in past years.

However, each student must obtain his book of coupons at the Athletic Office some time during the period of October 1 to November 15, inclusive.

The student must present a picture of himself (1¼ by 1¼ inches in size) along with his registration card, when applying for the season book.

Soccer

Soccer Team Faces '48 With Rebuilding Program

It's a torrid seven game schedule that faces Bish Baker, coach of the Greyhounds' soccer team, and in order to come out on the winning side of it, many things must be accomplished.

Of all the jobs ahead, the toughest seems to be finding suitable replacements for Bill Linz and Ellsworth Andrews, two All-State performers lost by the graduation route.

Outlook Unpredictable

Although the majority of last year's squad returns for another campaign, the outlook for this year is unpredictable. It could be bright or it could be dim.

Nick Kropfelder, high-scoring star of last year's second place club, will be Coach Baker's main scoring punch if his injured leg holds out. Tommy Lind, also on the injured list, and Hank Linz will be highly regarded by opposing coaches.

Lohrey Named Grid Coach

by Andy O'Donnell

An announcement was made recently by the Baltimore City Junior College appointing Phil Lohrey as head football coach of the school. He is to succeed Ernie Rau, who made an enviable record at Southern High before taking over the coaching duties at Baltimore City Junior College.

Phil, a student at Loyola, has had plenty of football experience, playing guard three years for McDonogh. He was also a member of the West Point Plebe team where he turned in some admirable performances.

To Employ Single Wing

Coach Lohrey expects to use a single wingback formation. He had hoped to use a "T" formation, but after looking over the material it was decided a single wing would pack more power.

A fine schedule has been drawn up for the team. Georgetown Frosh and Bucknell Frosh are included in the schedule.

Phil as yet hasn't produced any "crying towels" and looks forward to a fine season.

es this coming season, if past performances mean anything.

Others Return

Teaming with these players will be Harry Bullington, Jerry Dotterweich, Dick Hicks, John Kerr, John Gants, George Phillips and Johnny Amer, just to mention a few, from last year's Mason-Dixon Conference runners-up, who ended a good season with six wins, three losses and one tie.

As this is being written, none of the incoming freshmen has shown their skill on the soccer field. However, Bish Baker is looking forward to the season's first few practice sessions in order to get a line on what they are able to do, both on offense and on defense.

Toughest Foes

According to Bish, Washington College, University of Maryland and Johns Hopkins University are going to give the Greyhounds the most trouble this year, with the University of North Carolina fielding a vastly improved club over that of last year, which lost a 4-1 encounter to the Hounds here at Evergreen.

The Schedule

Oct. 8—Towson—H
Oct. 15—North Carolina—A
Oct. 20—Washington College—A
Oct. 25—Western Maryland—A
Oct. 28—Maryland—H
Nov. 3—U. of Baltimore—A

Alumni Bowlers In Full Swing

Starting its second season of play, the Alumni Association's Bowling League launched its 1948-49 campaign on September 14, at the Plaza Bowling Alleys.

Franny Mueller, class of '43, was instrumental in organizing the league last year, but presently finds himself bogged down with work and has handed over the reins to Joe Donohue, class of '41.

The Alumni bowlers go through their paces every Tuesday evening, beginning at 7:15. There is room for more teams in this expanding organization; anyone interested is urged to submit his name.

Charlie Bitterli, class of October '43, is secretary of the league. He will accept all applications, and can be contacted through the Alumni Association.

Cross Country

Cross Country Hopes Rise With Returning Veterans

by Bob Roesner

"If Loyola ever had a chance of copping the Mason-Dixon Cross Country title this has to be the year." So says Coach Bill McElroy as he takes over the hill and dales for the second season.

One can see just what Bill means when they look at the nucleus around which Coach McElroy will build his squad. Returning from last year's team which finished fourth in the Mason-Dixon meet are such stalwarts as George Brown, Yogi Paszek and Jimmy Kauffman. If a few good runners can be found to give a helping hand to these seasoned veterans, come December you may well find the cross country Trophy atop the locker in Lefty Reitz's office.

Brown Champion

When the name George Brown is mentioned Bill McElroy's eyes have a close resemblance to electric eels. For, in George, Loyola has one of the state's outstanding athletes. Few men carrying the Green and Gray colors have run off with more honors than this modest lad with the crew cut. Last year George added the Mason-Dixon Championship to his undefeated season as he finished first in the annual conference meet. Brown got a jump on the rest of the boys when he ran in the Municipal Games on September 13.

Paszek And Kauffman

McElroy has great hopes for two boys who had fairly good seasons last year. Both Jim Kauffman and Yogi Paszek have been working out over the wooded paths for the entire summer and should better their records of last season. Paszek ran tenth and Kauffman finished in the first 15 in the Mason-Dixon meet last year. A summer of hard work should pay off for all three of McElroy's hopefuls.

Among the newcomers from whom aid is expected is Alan Meehan, a hurdler and high jumper from Loyola High.

This season a new Mason-Dixon rule allows five men to score instead of four. This should aid Loyola.

Although the Greyhounds are eyeing an M-D crown, they are just as eager to gain revenge on St. Joseph's of Philadelphia, who swamped McElroy's boys 15-40 last year. Brown was the only Loyolan to finish among the first ten runners.

Tentative schedule:

Oct. 16—Hopkins—away
22—Gallaudet—away
26—Catholic U.—home
Nov. 9—St. Joe—away
22—Mason-Dixon Meet at Gallaudet

The Grab Bag

by Vince Bagli

(Editor's Note: Vince Bagli, who poses as Loyola's crystal gazer of the gridiron, acquired quite a following last year, and has been asked to resume his predictions during the 1948 season.)

We did a bit of crystal gazing last year, and somebody must have been satisfied, because here we are out on a limb again.

Alabama over Tulane.
Villanova over Army—the Wildcats should revenge those wartime pastings.
California over Navy.
Columbia over Rutgers—it'll be Rossides vs. Burns in T. D. parade.
Cornell over N. Y. U.
Duke over N. C. State.
Holy Cross over Georgetown—should be close.
Ga. Tech over Vanderbilt.
Indiana over Wisconsin.
Maryland over Richmond.
Michigan over Michigan State.
Minnesota over Washington.
Ohio State over Missouri.
Texas over North Carolina—Tarheels may upset at home, remembering 0-34 ('47 score).
Northwestern over U. C. L. A.
Notre Dame over Purdue—Boilermakers will make it rough, though.
T. U. C. over Oklahoma A. & M.
S. M. U. over Pittsburgh.
U. S. C. over Oregon State.
Yale over Brown.

Alumni Basketball Books

Since application forms for basketball season books will not be mailed to Alumni this year, this fact is brought to the attention of all ex-Loyolans.

However, the Athletic Department would like members of the Alumni to order their books as soon as possible in order to assure good seat allocation.

Orders can be placed in person, by mail, or by phone. Please state seat preference, if any, when making your order.

Intramurals

Intramural Sports Offer Complete Well Rounded Program For 1948-49

The Setup

Another mammoth year is in sight for intramural sports at Loyola. Last year saw over 400 students participating in intramurals. These students comprised nearly 50% of the school's enrollment. This percentage is really something at which to marvel, for 30% participation is considered above normal. This year, with practically the same well-rounded set-up, Franny Mueller, intramural director, has high hopes of another banner season.

Intramurals provide recreation and exercise for students lacking sufficient calibre to engage in a varsity sport. They also may give added experience to some who will later on try out for the varsity squads. Other sports than those found in the athletic schedule may also be found in the intramural program.

Schedule For The Year

The set-up for the year finds Touch Football Leagues, a Tennis Singles Tournament, and a Horse-shoe Tournament opening the program in the fall. In the winter the Basketball Leagues, the Bowling Tournament, and the Ping-Pong Tournament are scheduled. Spring draws the curtain on the schedule with the Softball Leagues, the Tennis Doubles Tournament, and the Golf Tournament.

If enough students are interested in holding some other contest, Franny Mueller will be glad to arrange it.

Entries must be made on the proper forms supplied by the Intramural Director. These are usually obtainable on the large bulletin board in the basement of the gym. The forms must be filled out in full and returned to the intramural mail box, on the equipment room door, before any student or team becomes eligible for play.

All information pertinent to various intramural sports will be found on the gym athletic board and it is the responsibility of each player to check with the board regularly.

Schedules Are Important

It is most important that the schedules on the blanks be filled out correctly, since few postponements will be allowed this year, so that the program will progress at a steady pace. It is recommended that members of teams have similar schedules for convenient reasons.

Intramural sports are open to all students except those representing Loyola in an intercollegiate sport. These students are ineligible only for that season during which their sport is in progress.

Referees are always needed and those interested in acting as such should contact Mr. Mueller in the Athletic Office.

Trophies Awarded

Besides the medallions presented to all tournament and league winners two trophies will be presented to the outstanding intramural athlete of the year and runner-up.

Points toward this goal will be obtained not only for proficiency, but also for participation. A complete program is lined up, so let's take advantage of it by showing interest and cooperation.

Tennis

Last year over fifty prospective netters turned out for the tennis tournament and this year should show the same enthusiasm. Leading candidate for the championship will be Ben Spurrier, who emerged victoriously in last fall's tournament.

Because of the change in the Greyhound schedule, an extra day will be allowed for the late-comers to get in an entry blank. Entries will be received in the intramural mail box up to the end of the school day on Monday, September 27.

Pairings should be ready, and posted on the gym bulletin board by Wednesday, September 29, when play begins. It is most important that phone numbers be included on entry blanks for the contacting of the opponent is the responsibility of each player.

First round matches must be concluded by Friday, October 8. Those not played by this date will be forfeited so that the tourney may progress at a steady pace. Balls will be provided in the equipment room in the gym and entrants will get priority cards for use on the courts.

Touch Football

Entries must be in on Wednesday, September 29. Play starts Monday, October 4.

All teams will be placed in four to six team leagues. League winners will enter a playoff. Groupings and double loss elimination will work to determine the championship team.

This type of set-up is necessary because of space considerations and schedule inconsistencies. All games will be played at 2:20, 3:15 and 4:05 each day.

It is most important that the entry blanks be filled properly. Sample entry blanks may be found on the bulletin board in the gym. Rules are similar to last year's rules which were pretty much the same as regular eleven man rules.

The exceptions to this are: one touch constitutes a tackle, fumbles are dead (to prevent pile-ups and injuries), and four points are scored for field goals. The reason for the latter is an effort to promote more of this type of play.

The playing field will be divided into sections by white stripes, and first-downs are made by passing to the next section. Referees and time-keepers are urgently needed. Anyone interested—see Franny Mueller in the gym.

Horseshoes

Horseshoes tourney entries must fill out the blanks on the bulletin board by Friday, October 8, and pairings will be up on Monday, October 12, at which time play will start.

At least 16 entries are necessary in order to hold the tournament. Heading these entries is last year's winner, Gerald King.

Pits are located in the northeast corner of the athletic field. Horseshoes may be obtained in the equipment room in the gym for use in the pits at any time. Again, it is necessary that phone numbers be included on the entry blanks when handing them in.

7. When the ball is snapped from center, the offensive team must have at least three players on the line of scrimmage.
8. Unlimited substitution is permitted when time is stopped, except for the last two minutes of the game. During this time substitution is permitted only in case of injury.

Slater System Has New Caf Manager

A new manager has been appointed by the Slater System to handle the Loyola College cafeteria. He is Mr. John Bruce who assumed his new position last week.

Mr. Bruce stated that the Snack Bar which had been closed during the last Spring Term had been reopened and would remain open throughout the rest of the scholastic year.

The new manager contemplates no major changes in the present system at the College but expresses the hope that he will be able to give the Loyola students swift service and a variety of foods at reasonable prices.

Loyola's Alumni Association will meet in the Recreation Room of the Alumni Gymnasium on Friday, October 15, 1948 to elect officers for the 1948-49 year. This date was selected by the Executive Committee at its monthly meeting on Friday, September 17.

C. Arthur Eby, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, will preside for the election proceedings. Besides the Nominating Committee's slate, nominations will be accepted from the floor on the night of the election. Members in good standing are eligible for any office.

After the completion of the business meeting, refreshments will be served in the Recreation Room by the Entertainment Committee.

nourished greyhound that was donated to the school last June, apparently couldn't conquer his intense desire to travel and shortly after the close of the spring term he broke away from the school grounds, headed for parts unknown.

We're quite sure it wasn't that he disliked Evergreen, because he had run away from his previous owner at least a dozen times. So if you spot a slim, graceful canine traveling the city streets, put a leash around his neck. Perhaps we can talk him into staying for awhile. After all, human beings aren't such bad company.

Field Well Conditioned

With the neat trimming job that has recently been given to the athletic playing field, you may have noticed that the grass covering is in the best condition it has known for several years. Acting on the advice of a horticulturist, the Athletic Department has followed a definite pattern in caring for the field, and the results are gratifying.

Intramural Activity Quickens

Today is the deadline for entries in the Intramural Tennis Tournament. If you're not a member of the soccer or cross-country teams here's a chance to take an active part in sports at Loyola.

Some such participation should be a part of every well rounded student's curriculum. Besides tennis, there is also a Touch Football League and a Horseshoe Tournament being organized.

Franny Mueller is arranging the intramural program for you. Don't let him down!

Football Rules . . .

- touchdown with the scored-on team electing to kick or receive.
- The playing field will be marked off in four lateral sections of 15 yard widths. The offensive team, regardless of the spot where possession of the ball is assumed will have four downs in which to advance ball past the next forward lateral line. Failure to do so results in loss of ball. When the ball is successfully advanced into the next section forward, a "first down" will be declared and four more downs will be granted from the spot where the first down was declared.
- A touchdown counts for 6 points. A conversion, whether by kicking or advancing the ball across the goal line, count one point. A field goal counts four points. A safety counts two points.

V. Penalties

Offside—5 yards.
Clipping—15 yards from spot of infraction.

Backfield in motion, holding, illegal blocking—10 yards.

Unnecessary roughness, unsportsmanlike conduct—half distance to the goal.

When referee suspects unnecessary delay, he will warn the offending team; subsequent infractions carry a 10 yard penalty, except in final two minutes of the game when the penalty is loss of ball.

All rules and regulations not herein provided for will be governed by the Intercollegiate Football Rules for 1948.

Those interested in joining any of the school organizations should contact either the moderators or officers of the particular society. If you are unable to do so, watch the Daily Bulletin.

The All-Catholic designation, the top award from the Catholic Press Association, was the first such rating received by THE GREYHOUND for three years.

How high can you go

IN THE U. S. AIR FORCE?

The ceiling's unlimited! Men who enter the Air Force as Aviation Cadets become 2nd Lieutenants within a year. From there on, they can climb as far and as fast as their ability and the needs of the service permit. Under the Air Force expansion program, there is plenty of room for advancement. 2nd Lieutenants automatically become 1st Lieutenants after three years of service; are eligible to become Captains, Majors and Lieutenant Colonels after 7, 14 and 21 years respectively. More rapid promotions are frequent. Never before has the opportunity for making the Air Force a permanent career been so favorable, especially to the men in Aviation Cadet Pilot Training.

Here are the requirements:

Appointment to the Aviation Cadets is open to single men, between 20 and 26½ years old, who have completed two years of college (or can pass an equivalent examination). Upon graduation, Cadets receive their wings and commission, a $250 uniform allowance, and three-year active duty assignment with pay up to $336 a month.
